

Who are the faces of the MFSP in your community?

Since 1991, the Military Family Services Program (MFSP) has been growing and changing to meet the evolving needs of Canadian Forces families. As part of our celebration of the Program's 20th anniversary, Director Military Family Services (DMFS) would like to share stories from the families and service providers who've been involved with the MFSP over the last 20 years.

We want to share a diverse range of experiences from families, volunteers and service providers involved with the Program across the country and around the world. To do this, we're asking you – the leaders of Canadian/Military Family Resource Centres in your communities – to get involved. Here's how:

- Do you have long-time staff members, volunteers or Board Members who have become an integral part of military family services in your community? We want to hear about their unique contributions.
- Are there families who've been involved with your Centre for years and who've become friendly, familiar faces? We want to connect with them, and hear what living the military lifestyle has meant for their family.

DMFS will be compiling stories over the next two months. Some of these stories will then be featured in a special 20th anniversary supplement to be published in the national Canadian Forces newspaper, the Maple Leaf, slated for April 2011. Additional stories will also be featured on our DMFS website, www.cfpsa.com/dmfs, and on the new web portal for military families, www.familyforce.ca.

To nominate a military family member or service provider for DMFS to profile as part of the 20th anniversary celebrations, please send an email to Jen Dalziel, Information Coordinator at dalziel.jennifer@cfpsa.com with the following basic information by 18 February 2011. Jen will conduct follow-up interviews and obtain photos to accompany the profiles as required.
