

#MyVoice: What do you like about postings and why?

Nouveaux départs, endroits, amis!! Été en congé, enfants bilingues (et moi aussi!), nouvelles expériences de travail!! On oublie ça la monotonie

The challenge of starting fresh; meeting new people; looking for a new job in my field and gaining new work experience; having my children gain valuable life experience

It's an opportunity to start over, to take the 'lessons learned' from the last posting to the new one. I always learn something about myself, and about others, with each new posting.
